10am - 3pm

Grantham Choral Society is running a one-day practical workshop to study Haydn's Nelson Mass at ChristChurch, Finkin Street, Grantham on Saturday March 7th 2020 from 10am until 3pm.

The day will be run by Joseph Porter-Bolger who will be working together with our Musical Director David Humphreys. Joseph is an operatic countertenor who sings principal roles for many professional groups around the country. He also trains cathedral choristers and conservatoire students as well as having been a senior lecturer in Classical Voice at Leeds College of Music.

The cost for the day is £20 (£18 if booked before Saturday 15th February). Tea and coffee will be available, and our social team will provide a buffet lunch for an additional £5 per head (please indicate on the form opposite if you will be having the buffet lunch). Cheques made payable to Grantham Choral Society

This workshop is open to all. If you are about to perform Haydn's Nelson Mass or would like to become better acquainted with the work, you can be assured of a friendly welcome, top-class coaching and plenty of refreshments throughout the day.

We will be using the New Novello Choral Edition which will be readily available to borrow on the day for a £5 deposit returnable at the end of the workshop.
